2018 Annual Report

Catholic Charities

Dear Friends in Christ

In my nine years of service as the Bishop of the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois and as the president of Catholic Charities, I have seen many people and heard many stories of those faced with difficult and challenging situations.

Some people need basic needs met, like food and medication. For others, the need goes beyond physical healing as they seek help with more complex matters, like legal issues or mental health counseling. All these people have one thing in common: They need help and hope.

Thanks to your prayers and generosity, Catholic Charities has been a shining light of hope and help for many. Over the past 90 years, our numerous services have helped thousands of people overcome difficult periods in their lives. The success of the agency is not from the effort of one person or a handful of people. The success comes from a continuous network of donors, staff, volunteers, board members, priests and religious coming together under the umbrella of Catholic Charities. The collective efforts fulfill the mission of the agency “to extend to all the healing and empowering presence of Jesus.”

We are instructed to bring God’s love to whoever we can reach — and that is what Catholic Charities does on a daily basis. Each program is deeply rooted in our commitment to provide professional, quality services and our desire to bring mercy and justice to anyone in need. As Catholics we know that this is what all of God’s children rightfully deserve.

As you review Catholic Charities 2018 Annual Report, pray that each person who comes to them seeking help would feel the love and grace of our Lord and Savior. This year, I challenge you to continue to support Catholic Charities as they continue to be a shining light to our neighbors.

Sincerely Yours In Christ,

+ Thomas John Paprocki

Most Reverend Bishop Thomas J. Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

Dear Friends of Catholic Charities,

This year I will be blessed to celebrate my 20-year anniversary as the executive director for Catholic Charities in the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois. As I reflect upon my experiences over these last two decades, I can’t help getting a little nostalgic.

Catholic Charities has been my life’s work since 1985 when I started my career in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

I took my first job with Catholic Charities right out of college working in a group home with children who were wards of the state and had been removed from their own homes due to reasons of serious abuse and neglect. I honestly took the job not knowing what to expect, but I quickly became impassioned by the plight of these “forgotten kids” and how painful their lives had become through no fault of their own. I saw in them such incredible courage to overcome the unjust obstacles in their lives and I was perpetually inspired by their optimism, strength and willingness to forge a brighter future. To this day it was the hardest job I ever had — and the most rewarding.

For the first time, I also became aware of the tremendous giving spirit of people who supported the work we did with these children. Strangers, with no connection whatsoever to our kids, would devote their time, talents and treasure to helping us provide for them. It was something that made a huge impact on me for the rest of my life. The compassion and generosity shown by so many wonderful, selfless people reinforced my determination to serve these “least of our brothers and sisters” to the best of my ability.

When I was appointed executive director by Bishop Daniel Ryan in 1999, I once again didn’t know what to expect. I believed I had the experience and education to do the job, but I honestly didn’t have a very complete picture of what the position entailed. Boy, was I in for a few surprises! The challenges of operating a not for profit, faith-based organization are never ending and diverse. Over the years, there have been many constants that have allowed me to satisfy the requirements of this position.

First and foremost, there has been my faith. It has been an honor to work for my church and to help fulfill our “option for the poor” mandate and to bring tangible action to Christ’s instruction to “love one another.” Next has been the love and understanding of my family and friends who have supported my efforts and accepted the sacrifices that are made in order to meet the demands of my job. One definite constant has been the hard work and dedication of so many Catholic Charities colleagues who I have worked side by side with over the years. Whether they were staff members, board members or volunteers, these compassionate, gifted people have enriched my journey in so many ways and their loyalty and trust has truly sustained me.

The last constant has been the never-ending generosity of our Catholic Charities donors. Annually, through good times and struggles, thousands of people across our diocese send their hard-earned dollars to Catholic Charities to ensure that our critical Mission of Love will always be there for people in need. Without this support, it would be impossible to keep this promise. Thank you so much for whatever role you have played or will play in making Catholic Charities a source of pride and hope for all of us.

Sincerely,

Steven E. Roach

Be the Light

Pope Francis states that the family is the light of the world and Carlinville Catholic Charities saw that in 2018 through a number of our programs. We particularly saw great results from the parenting and anger management courses offered. Providing parents with proper tools empowers them to make better decisions. Feedback from the course was overwhelmingly positive.

In conjunction with the 7th Circuit Court, Carlinville Catholic Charities has seen wonderful success by providing mediation services to low income families to ensure the allocation of parental responsibilities are in the best interest of children and their parents.

Impacting Hunger & Health

In 2018 Decatur has shed a bright light on rural hunger through the growth of the Mobile Food Program. Decatur went from serving 754 people in FY '17 to 3,790 in FY '18. Growth of that magnitude in one year can only happen because of the great support of the Decatur community.

Decatur also welcomed a new program in 2018 that has already demonstrated amazing success and is providing a great light in health services. Catholic Charities, in partnership with St. Mary's Hospital, began Health Connect. Health Connect is a free patient-centered program located within the emergency room of the hospital to assist patients who frequently utilize the emergency room. Catholic Charities provides services that address not only health issues such as securing medication, but also social issues by connecting with community resources.

In 2018 Effingham saw an outpouring of love from companies around town including: Pinnacle, Midland, Niemerg's Steak House, Joe's Pizza & Pasta, CCI Redi-Mix and many more. Their efforts to raise money or collect food or coats allows us to continuously grow our reach.

Effingham Catholic Charities in partnership with HSHS St. Anthony Memorial Hospital, collaborate to provide a holistic and healing approach to people who suffer from diabetes. Through this program, Catholic Charities offers one-on-one counseling with a hospital nutritionist once a month. Bingo, monthly potlucks, meetings and morning coffee are just a few of the activities that keep the tenants active, engaged and involved, and this year was no different. The annual Tenant Appreciation Luncheon saw some changes that were warmly welcomed, greatly appreciated and thoroughly enjoyed by all! Let's not forget to mention the Mobile Food Pantry delivery that Springfield Catholic Charities made to help tenants stock their pantry. Tenants were able to "shop" for the items they wanted and trade others for those they did not, and are looking forward to the next MFP delivery to Beardstown. Although, we said goodbye to some long-time tenants we also welcomed new tenants and are looking forward to more activities.

Matthew 5:14-16 says You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father.
